Members Absent : John Lindsay

Staff Present : Victor Sinadinoski, Planning Director

Public Present : None.

3. AGENDA REVIEW

None.

4. PUBLIC FORUM

None.

5. STAFF UPDATES

A. Public Works Specifications PC Hearing

Sinadinoski said that the Public Works department has not yet finished their review of the specifications. Sinadinoski said that the Selectboard approved the edits that were submitted with one addition of a conditional use related to pet grooming.

Donna said that proposed uses should be discussed further before they are approved by the Selectboard in the future. Donna said that the Planning Commission would like to have a discussion with the Selectboard so that immediate approvals do not become a recurrence.

6. BUSINESS

A. 262 Middle Road - SD Ireland Fill on Beaudoin Property

Chilcote said that there should be stronger verbiage.

Ross would like minor edits to be done before official submission.

B. Town Comprehensive Plan

Sinadinoski said that the earliest planned approval is currently January of 2020. Sinadinoski said that the Planning Commission is currently a little behind on their schedule in relation to the plan.

The Planning Commission agreed to continue forward with the Town Comprehensive Plan as it is currently outlined.

C. Visioning Workshop

Chilcote wants to learn about the prejudices regarding Milton and see what can be done to help the Town. Chilcote said that he would like to start with a small group and find common ground for a vision to then extend to a larger group later on. Chilcote wants to learn informally through the Planning Commission how to have these conversations with the public in a more structured way.
