V.

A. Recreation Updates, Budget Updates

Please see attached Director's Note for all updates.

- E Bikes : Town & School put out information. Rec & PD attended webinar by Local Motion: They offered great advice and education. Would like to work towards finding safe places for E Bike use around town.
- Holiday Light Parade : Rec Dept met with Town Manager and Police Chief to discuss logistics. More information needs to be obtained, still pending.
- Senior Center : Hannah attended board meeting with the Senior Center. Hannah asked for feedback on programing and other opportunities and amenities seniors need or would be interested in.

- Selectboard invited Rec Commission to attend the June 15th meeting to share any updates with the board.
- Several Applications received for the Open Rec Commission seats. Applicants will need to attend an upcoming Selectboard meeting for a brief interview. 2 Open Seats are available.
- 4th of July Celebration
 - Army Band will be performing at Bombardier Park
 - Hannah found a marching band for the parade. She will continue to reach out to other local bands
 - Rec Dept purchased inflatable screen for Hometown Hero's tribute. Looking for tech-savvy community members to set up and run screen and projector.
 - Activities Planned: Live Music, Hat Bar, Face Painting, Bounce House, Bubbles, Food Trucks, Lawn Games, Golf (tbd)
 - Fireworks will cost $30k and will be a 20min show.
 - $12,800 in sponsorship received thus far. Continuing to seek additional sponsors.

B. Recap of Events, Upcoming Events

- Thank You to Rod for planning a wonderful Memorial Day Event.

VI. Milton Recreation Commission Report

A. Master Plan/By-Laws Discussion

- Recreation Committee members staffed a table in the Town Office Lobby on Election Day from 7am to 6:45pm and handed out hundreds of business cards with QR code to survey. 107 responses have been received so far. This includes on-line and paper submissions.
- Recreation Committee Members are encouraged to sign up for a shift at the Farmer's Markets to hand out the cards and promote the survey.
- Survey Promotion Ideas: Send email to teachers, Activities Fair, share with PTA, Include in E-Newsletter, added to receipt for purchases made through Rec Dept, yard signs, give to rec activity instructors to hand out, fall program guide
- Rod and Hannah to meet to discuss engagement board ideas.
- B inquired if survey questions could be consolidated so it took less time to complete.
